

Support Your Library

Friends of Hancock County Public Library is a membership-supported, non-profit organization that raises money through the sale of books, DVDs, and CDs.

Established in 1979, our Friends organization funds cultural and educational events at the library as well as literacy initiatives in Hancock County.

Friends Sponsor:

- * Concerts, lectures, and workshops
- * Children's programs
- * Prizes for the reading clubs
- * Special events and library projects

Contact Us:

900 W McKenzie Rd, Greenfield, IN, 46140

Phone: 317-462-5141, ext. 255

Email: Friends@hcplibrary.org

Facebook: Friends of Hancock County Public Library

Join the Friends of the Hancock County Public Library

Benefits of Membership

- Attend members-only previews of our quarterly sales and have first choice of books, DVDs, and music CDs.
- Receive an invitation to a member's-only special event.
- Obtain a tax credit for donations and membership dues.

Name _____
(please print)

Address _____

City/Zip _____

Phone _____

Email _____

Date _____

Membership Levels

- ☐ ($15) Individual ☐ ($25) Family
☐ ($50) Patron ☐ ($100+) Corporate
☐ Cash/Check ☐ Charge

I would like make a donation of $_____ to the Friends to support their literacy efforts in Hancock County.

I would like to volunteer for:

- ☐ The book sale
☐ Book donation day