Donating to the Library

Endowment Fund

Contributions to the Hancock County Public Library Endowment Fund make a meaningful difference to the people the library serves.

---

Gifts to the fund are invested and continue to grow as a renewable resource that will allow the library to sustain its role as a shared destination for enriching lives well into the future.

---

- Make a tribute to celebrate a birthday, anniversary, or other special occasion
- Create a memorial to a loved one, friend, or mentor.

“No act of kindness,
no matter how small,
is ever wasted.”

-Aesop

How Can I Help?

Donations of any amount are greatly appreciated, whether at a single time or at arranged intervals. To make a non-monetary gift or special arrangements, please contact Director Dave Gray at (317) 467-6663.

---

Give in ways easiest for you:

- Credit Card
- Checks payable to the Hancock County Public Library Endowment Fund (Mail to: 900 W. McKenzie Rd., Greenfield, IN 46140, Attn: Director)
- Cash
- Will or Estate Planning
- Life Insurance
- Retirement Assets
- Securities

All donations to the Hancock County Public Library are tax deductible.

Dedicated Books

Create a memorial or make a thoughtful gesture toward a library enthusiast or loved one.

Dedicate a book selected by the library on a subject that reflects his or her personality.

---

Choose a landscape book for a gardener or a cookbook for the family chef—you decide on the category. Or select an eBook, audiobook, or DVD in the same way for our digital collection.

A dedication to the recipient will be plated on the book's flyleaf.
